INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Member of Electronic Brokerage Systems, L.L.C.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Electronic Brokerage Systems, L.L.C. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2005 that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Electronic Brokerage Systems, L.L.C. as of December 31, 2005, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statement taken as a whole. The information contained in the supplementary schedules is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statement, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the basic financial statement and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects, in relation to the basic financial statement taken as a whole.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION as of December 31, 2005

1. Organization

Electronic Brokerage Systems, L.L.C. (the "Company"), a Delaware limited liability company (formerly Electronic Brokerage Systems, Inc. ("EBSI"), a Delaware corporation), was formed as a result of the conversion of EBSI to a limited liability company on January 1, 2002. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of all principal U.S. securities exchanges and the National Association of Securities Dealers. The Company is also a clearing member of the National Securities Clearing Corporation and the Options Clearing Corporation and is a member of the Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation. The Company engages in the distribution of order routing software for the securities industry.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

A summary of the significant accounting policies which have been followed in preparing the accompanying financial statements is set forth below:

Revenue Recognition

Fee income and related expenses are recorded on an accrual basis.

Income Taxes

No provision has been made for federal income taxes, as the taxable income of the Company is included in the respective income tax return of its member. However, the Company is liable for nominal limited liability company state income taxes. These taxes, imposed at the Company level, are included in other expenses in the statement of operations.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation of furniture and computer equipment is computed using the straight-line method for financial reporting and accelerated methods for income tax purposes. Leasehold improvements are being amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the associated lease

Foreign Currency Transactions

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated to U.S. dollars at the closing rates of exchange at December 31, 2005. Transactions during the year are translated at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of the transaction.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION, Continued as of December 31, 2005

3. Related-Party Transactions

The Company shares certain expenditures with, receives certain services from, pays certain expenses for and collects payments on behalf of related companies.

Robert C. Sheehan & Associates, L.L.C. ("RCS"), which is related by common ownership, is a registered broker-dealer that provides execution services on the floor of the Chicago Board Options Exchange ("CBOE"). At December 31, 2005, the Company had a receivable from RCS totaling $38,433.

At December 31, 2005, the Company had a receivable of $231,215 from its sole member, Belzberg Technologies (USA) Inc. Additionally, the Company had a receivable of $46,433 from Belzberg Technologies Inc. ("BTI"). BTI is a Canadian publicly-listed company that acts as the ultimate holding company for all of the related entities.

The Company is allocated an asset and corresponding liability and interest expense related to a capital lease entered into by an affiliate. At December 31, 2005, computer equipment under an affiliated company capital lease was fully depreciated (original cost totaled $64,393).

4. Commitments

The Company conducts its operations in leased office facilities and annual rentals are charged to current operations. The lease is subject to an escalation clause based on the operating expenses of the lessor.

The Company leases certain computer equipment under capital lease agreements that expire in 2008. The lease agreements provide the Company with the option to purchase the property at the end of the lease term for $1. Assets recorded under these capital lease agreements reflected as furniture, equipment and leasehold improvements in the statement of financial condition totaled $215,930 (cost of $286,282 less accumulated depreciation of $70,352).

Future minimum lease payments under scheduled capital and operating leases are approximately as follows:

		Capital Leases		Operating Lease
2006 2007 2008	$	107,000 107,000 26,000	$	80,000 81,000 49,000
Total minimum payments Amount representing interest	_	240,000 (20,000)	$ _	210,000
Capital lease obligations	$ _	220,000

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION, Continued as of December 31, 2005

5. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15(c)3-1). Under this rule, the Company is required to maintain "net capital" equal to the greater of $250,000 or 2% of "aggregate debit items" arising from customer transactions, as defined.

At December 31, 2005, the Company had net capital and net capital requirements of $5,247,693 and $250,000, respectively.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

To the Member of Electronic Brokerage Systems, L.L.C.

In planning and performing our audit of the statement of financial condition of Electronic Brokerage Systems, L.L.C. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2005, we considered its internal control structure, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statement and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g), in the following:

- 1. Making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the reserve required by Rule 15c3-3(e)
- 2. Making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
- Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
- 4. Obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by Rule 15c3-3

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the proceeding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the proceeding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate. Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2005 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the SEC, the Chicago Board Options Exchange, the New York Stock Exchange and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
